Our New Summer Book!

We know how it is: Summer isn't the time you want to start anything too intense, too hard, too deep. Just ask any child; they'll tell you summer is no time for learning! Summer is for novels on the beach! That's why our summer book this year is...Fiction! And not just any fiction. Award-winning, beloved, spiritual fiction. ~Read more about Gilead on page 4

Books are NOW available for $10 at the Front Desk. Every Thursday this summer during the lunch hour Rev. Erin Beall will be at DeBeen Espresso coffee shop for book discussion, and in late August Wesley Memorial will host a dinner and panel discussion of the book with Revs. Al Ward, Jared Stine, and Erin Beall.

So, invite your friends, pick up your book, and let's read, grow, and be inspired together through Marilynne Robinson's Gilead!

Wesley Memorial Student Ministries

Bruce Hathaway Scholarship Winner

Every year, Student Ministries recognizes our students who are graduating from high school. We recognize one outstanding high school graduate in Student Ministries to receive the Bruce Hathaway scholarship. Voted on by the Kerygma leaders, this $500 scholarship is given to the student who they believe has dedicated their time to the ministry and been profoundly impacted by the church. This year's scholarship recipient is Reggie Freeman.

Reggie Freeman has been an active member of the Student Ministries. An upcoming graduate of Andrews High School, Reggie has been involved with the program for many years. Reggie was also approved to become an Eagle Scout this past spring. He will be joining the U.S. Army Reserves. If you see Reggie around, be sure to congratulate him on this achievement. We wish him, and all of our seniors, the best of luck as they start the next chapters in their lives.

New Series in June: Propel

When you were a kid, what did you look forward to most? Was it taking off the training wheels? Being tall enough to ride whatever you wanted at the fair? Getting to wear makeup? Or driving a car? It seems there's something in every little kid that loves the idea of growing up. That doesn't really go away as we get older. Middle school makes us wish for high school. High school makes us wish for college. And most of the time, we know what it takes to get from one level to the next, but what about spiritually? How do we know we're moving forward in our faith? And what are the things that help us get there? The good news is that, God wants us to grow. He wants to see us move forward. So, He doesn't make it complicated. This June, we will look at four things God uses to propel our faith, so that we may find that growing up spiritually can be simpler than we ever imagined.

Lead Small Initiative

Starting this summer, Student Ministries is starting a new program called the "Lead Small Initiative". What is Lead Small? Lead Small, based on the same book by Reggie Joiner, states that student ministry thrives in small group settings. It's where relationships are birthed, and the Gospel can truly come to life. We will be doing small changes throughout the summer as a "trial run", with the hopes of unveiling all of our changes by this fall. Stay tuned!

Summer "Friday Fundays"

Even though we will be slowing down for the summer, doesn't mean that we still won't be having fun. We will have two get-togethers this summer, both of which will be on Fridays. On June 26, we will be taking a trip to go tubing at the Dan River in Virginia. On July 24, we will be going on our previously-postponed trip to Carowinds. We hope your student can join us for both of them!

Summer Sunday School

This summer, we will still be meeting for Sunday School. However, we will be meeting in large groups instead of our regular classrooms. Please join us from 9:45-10:45 am in the Underground every Sunday this summer!

Gilead

Adults from all corners of the congregation are invited to join us as together we read Marilynne Robinson's novel Gilead. This breathtaking, heartbreaking, and inspiring novel won the 2005 Pulitzer Prize for fiction, as well as the National Book Critics Circle Award. Assigned in book clubs and seminary classes alike, this book is beloved by Christians of all ilk.

Gilead's main character is retired and ailing preacher John Ames. The plot, told in letters to his young son, centers on his waning and waxing spirituality, as he ages and his body begins to fail him. We see into the lives of his family and friends, who struggle to make sense of the troubles of rural life in the small town of Gilead, Iowa. We experience with John the enduring presence of God, even as our hearts fail us and our faith is questioned.

Learning to Walk in the Dark

Barbara Brown Taylor is an author, preacher, and speaker whose name you probably have heard before...because your pastors love her and can't stop quoting her! Now's your chance to read her latest (and possibly greatest!) book. Learning to Walk in the Dark is a fabulous and easy read that explores the dark side of faith: the side of doubts and fears, questions and unanswered prayers. Taylor asks the question: If God is only the God of the daytime, of brilliant sunshine and happy days, then what are we to do when the sun sets? So bring a bag supper or a snack and join us as we find that God is the God of the dark night, as well, and that there is truly nothing to fear!

Wednesday nights from 5:15-6:45, May 20-July 1 (Special Note: CHOIR MEMBERS WELCOME!) For more information or to register, contact Erin Beall (812-4815 or ebeall@wesleymemorial.org) Books are $12

Looking ahead, the choir will have a covered dish in the Fellowship Hall on August 26 to welcome everyone back after summer vacations and to celebrate our choral scholars.

The Chancel Choir held its annual picnic covered dish at the farm of Harriet Mattes on May 24. Many former choir members attended.

Community Garden at Wesley Memorial

The community garden experiment at Wesley Memorial is underway. We have ten 4 feet by 12 feet plant beds that are being planted by individuals and groups from Wesley Memorial. Thus far our gardeners have planted corn, tomatoes, squash, and greens beans. As the produce is harvested it will be shared with community agencies that feed the hungry.

Our gardeners are Bob Bass, Bill Anderson, Butch Farabow, MooMoo Councill, John Campbell, Rick Lutz, Wesley Memorial School, Wesley Memorial Staff, Kelley and Miller families, Sandy Rittenhouse and the Niebauer family, Charlie Surlles and Tom Gore.

In addition to the gardeners, the following people have worked on this project: Scott Dunbar and Dunbar Construction, Rick Lutz, George McLarty, Buddy Wilson, Ed Brooks and Henry McMullan. Special thanks to Bob Bass who has designed and directed this project.

The garden is located in the field next to the lower level of the playground. Drop by and see the garden grow. This is an example of Wesley Memorial servicing as the hands of Christ in ways that transform lives.

Annual Conference

The Western North Carolina Conference will convene at Lake Junaluska on June 17 under theme "Until The Whole World Hears." This year the Conference will not only conduct the regular agenda of worship and "holy conversation" about the affairs of the churches in western North Carolina, but it will also elect delegates to the General Conference held next May in Portland, OR. For Wesley Memorial, the highlight of the Conference will come on Saturday evening, when our own Erin Beall will be ordained an Elder. The Conference will end on Sunday morning, June 21, when Bishop Goodpaster will announce the clergy appointments for 2015-16 which will include the appointments of Erin Beall, Jared Stine, and Al Ward to Wesley Memorial. In addition to our clergy, Wesley Memorial will be represented by Suzie and Butch Farabow, Jim Royal, and George and Patty McLarty. Please keep the Conference in your prayers.

Erin's Ordination

We are so proud that Erin will be ordained an Elder at Annual Conference on June 20. If you would like to attend that service, it is open to the public and will be held in Stuart Auditorium on the campus of Lake Junaluska Assembly at 7:30 pm. We will be recognizing Erin and celebrating her ordination in all our services on Sunday, June 28. You may watch the Ordination Service at www.ac2015.org.

In July folks from Wesley Memorial and our Congregational Care Team will travel to Duke Divinity School to participate in the Reimagining Health Summer Gathering. This conference is sponsored by a new program at Duke entitled Reimagining Health: A Collaborative of Christian Communities. This invitation-only gathering brings together churches from across North Carolina to dialogue and discern Christian perspectives on human health, illness, disease, Sabbath, and modern medicine. The initiative hopes that these conversations will result in new and creative church practices regarding health, wellness, and suffering. After the summer gathering, Wesley Memorial will have the opportunity to participate in a two year Duke-funded partnership expanding or developing practices in our church and/or community. ## Toward a Future Worthy of Our Past

Our Church History...

One hundred years ago this year our church officially became Wesley Memorial by a vote of the members, in order to honor the founder of Methodism and to mark the church's move from Washington Street to North Main Street. Two years ago when John Wesley College changed its name to Laurel University, it gifted Wesley Memorial with a relief of John Wesley that had been part of that school's signage for many years.

The relief now hangs on the wall outside the Historical Room in the hall leading from the Adult Sunday School wing to the Sanctuary. We are grateful to Laurel University for this gift and it is a marvelous visual addition to the collection of John Wesley memorabilia: an original letter written by him to one of his superintendents in 1776 and two books he authored, THE ANALYSIS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT and THE SAINTS EVERLASTING REST. Please take a moment to stop and see this new addition.

Welcome, Thomas

Wesley Memorial is pleased to welcome Thomas Lyons as our Ministry Intern. Thomas is a native of Pompton Plains, NJ and a rising senior at High Point University where he is majoring in music performance with a concentration in voice. Thomas is a member of the HPU Chamber Singers and the Board of Stewards of the Hayworth Chapel. He has volunteered at Rankin Memorial UMC in High Point and sung as a choral scholar in the Chancel Choir at Memorial UMC in Thomasville. After graduation, he plans to attend seminary and become an ordained minister in the UMC.

The ministry internship is designed to help college students at High Point University, UNC-Charlotte, Appalachian State experience ministry in a local church setting as they explore and discern God's call for them. Wesley Memorial was one of three churches invited to participate in this project. The internship is funded through a grant awarded to the campus ministries at these schools by the Young Clergy Initiative of the Western North Carolina Conference.

On Alpha & Omega Sunday, May 31, Aislinn Antrim, a senior, was asked to speak to the congregation at the 11 am worship service. Unfortunately, she became very ill that morning and was unable to share her speech. We've included the words she prepared for us that morning. Enjoy...

Hello, I'm Aislinn Antrim. I've grown up in this church, from crawling in the nursery, to running through the children's hall, to napping on the couches in the youth area. As I'm nearing the end of my stretch as a member of the youth program, I've only begun to realize two major ways that Wesley Memorial has affected the person I am today and the person I will become in this next phase of my life. Of course, there's a myriad of ways that everyone here has affected my life, but these are the first two that come to mind.

Firstly, Wesley Memorial has given me a community of friends with the same beliefs and morals, something which is not always easy to find as a twenty-first century teenager. These friends have grown with me throughout the years, encouraging my faith as I hope I have encouraged theirs. Some of my favorite memories include spur-of-the-moment jam sessions with the youth band at church camp and competitive games of Sardines in the dark sanctuary during lock-ins. As we've grown beneath this steeple, I know our friendships will continue to grow over the next few years and beyond.

Secondly, and arguably most importantly, Wesley Memorial has grown my faith. At workshops, where we prayed together and grew our individual faiths, and at church camp, where we solidified our relationships with each other, this youth group has prepared me for the world outside of High Point. This congregation has given me a safety net to come home to, and the tools to go as far as I want. Honestly, it's scary. I don't think a single senior up here could say there's absolutely no trace of fear mixed in with our excitement. But with the foundation we've gained here, we can handle anything thrown in our paths. This church has made me who I am today, and I can't wait to see how this community continues to shape me in this next phase of my life. Thank you.
